

OPERATION BLAZING SWORD

An individual participating and involved in such third-party event as a member of OBS-PP is not expected or asked to use force of any kind in self-defense or defense of others to protect innocent lives at such event. Their decision on the use of force is and must be the choice of said individual and is not mandated, required, requested, or expected by OBS-PP.

An individual's presence as a member of OBS-PP does not constitute consent, support, knowledge, affirmation, liability for, or any other legal attachment by OBS-PP to that individual's speech, actions, or acts of violence at or related to said event, with the sole exception of speech performed as an invited speaker specifically on behalf of OBS-PP by the third party event's organizer(s). OBS-PP assumes no liability or responsibility for any use of force or physical acts by any individual to any extent, whatsoever.
